Military Spouses Need Federal Jobs!

- US Federal Government and Department of Defense jobs are located on every one of the 750 military bases worldwide.
- Approximately 672,000 active-duty military spouses are encumbered by frequent, involuntary moves and cannot choose where they live.
- With an astounding unemployment rate of 21%, approximately 137,000 military spouses are unemployed and seeking work.

Kathryn Troutman offers the ultimate guide for active-duty military spouses who would like to write Best Qualified Federal resumes and apply for those jobs using hiring paths and preference programs available to military spouses in the US and abroad.

Book Description

The first book of its kind, The Stars Are Lined Up for Military Spouses, 3rd. ed., provides clear guidance and up-to-date information about SEVEN federal hiring authorities and preference programs available to military spouses and family members. With these hiring paths in mind, Write a Best Qualified Federal Resume with Kathryn Troutman's lessons and sample federal resumes.

The all-new military spouse job block demonstrates how active-duty military spouses can successfully incorporate volunteer positions, relocation and family management skills, practical and cultural knowledge of installation and government functions, and key spouse leadership positions into their federal resumes.
